

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SINCE OUR LAST NEWSLETTER?

Do you choose to ride, or
BE the Wave of Change?

The partnership successfully completed the activities of WP3, dedicated to the 'Production of START learning tools'.

Microlearning pills and Gamified scenarios with narrative branches are already ready to enrich your green and digital skills.

But that's not all: since the end of July, the educational programme is available in all languages!

Training, entertainment, interaction, materials and learning objects... all in one environment designed to allow customisation of your learning pathway!

ACTIVITY 5 'ELABORATION OF THE GREEN- TECH TOOLKIT'

Adapt your skills to become a Change Agent

From 10 to 14 June, GTechnology - Fondazione Organismo di Ricerca hosted the START Project mobility at the University of Naples Federico II.

Five training days allowed trainers from Italy, Greece, Portugal and Spain to learn methodologies, models, techniques and tools needed to be a real Green Tech Infusion Coaches.

An opportunity to acquire and consolidate essential skills for conducting technology and green infusion sessions within organisations in the tourism sector.

WHAT NOW?

The partners have established an action plan for the pilot phase of the training programme, which is seen in 80 workers engaged in training activities that will help them become agents of change in their companies.
